CS7IS5 - Adaptive Applications

Owen.Conlan@scss.tcd.ie
Module Overview

• Duration
  • Semester 2
    • 11 weeks with 2 lectures per week

• Assessment
  • 100% Continuous Assessment
    • Group work (60%)
    • Individual assessment – Research Paper (40%)
Module Outline
What will you learn?

• The State of the Art in Adaptive Applications
  • IS5LO1  Compare and contrast different approaches to designing and delivering adaptive applications
  • IS5LO2  Understand users of complex applications and model their behaviours, preferences and tasks

• How to build an Adaptive Application
  • IS5LO3  As part of a team, design and develop a powerful adaptive applications... (Group)
  • IS5LO4  Write a research paper outlining the research carried out during the design, development and evaluation of the adaptive application (Individual)
Contact

• Owen.Conlan@scss.tcd.ie
  • This is the best way to contact me!

• Office: F.29 (Top Floor), O’Reilly Institute
  • This is where you might find me, but there’s a 90% chance I’ll be in a meeting!
Why me?

• Thought leader in personalisation
  • Highly cited in the areas of personalisation, user modelling and adaptive visualisations

• Lead many funded research and industry projects

• Lead the Personalising the User Experience theme in the ADAPT Centre (www.adaptcentre.ie)

• I’ve been doing this for many, many years!