I am working as part of the eVRT team in the Revenue, implementing a system that will allow for the future mandatory usage of the EU-wide standard document for all vehicle information, called the “Certificate of Conformity”.

My task is implementing a set of validation rules defined in the EU document given to the Revenue, and interpret them as a set of Java Validation rules using the Spring Framework.